ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

Close Fights for Championships in Both Divisions of League.

Officers for the association football team of the Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn have been elected as follows: Harold Armstrong, captain; J. O. P. Humphreys, as White street, New York, manager. Executive committee: W. C. Metcalf, W. D. Anderson, H. M. Keen and M. J. Lepp. The Crescent, as champions of the Soccer Field Club of New York and New Jersey, are scheduled to play against the Belmont Cricket Club of Philadelphia, winner of the Associated League, at Bay Ridge next Saturday, but the date will depend upon the state of the grounds, which were too soft to be used for the game yesterday.

With three teams struggling might and main for the lead, the competition for the championship of the New York Amateur Association football league is now in an ordinarily exciting. The clan McDonalds of Brooklyn have regained first place, holding it by the margin of one point over the Critchleys, also of Brooklyn, the latter in turn leading Hollywood Inn of Yonkers by a single point. Hollywood Inn, which has not been defeated, but has set to rest with both of the leaders, is tied with the Critchleys at 20 points. The standings follow:

CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

WOLGAST MAY HAVE TROUBLE WITH K. O. BROOK.

Local Lightweight and His Manager Sure That the Champion Will Suffer Defeat in Quaker-Hill Wednesday Night. Many New Yorkers Will See the Fight.

While a majority of the boxing fans will tell you that Wolgast, the lightweight champion, will easily outclass Quaker-Hill, the latter is not so sure. When they come together at Jack O'Brien's American A. C. in Philadelphia next Wednesday night, Danny Morgan, Wolgast's manager, freely predicts that the fight will be a close one. Morgan is one of those enthusiastic followers who never can see a defeat coming their way. He firmly believes that Brown is the greatest lightweight pugilist in the world, even though he doesn't know much about him. He is sure that Wolgast will win, but he cannot be so sure. Wolgast is limited to six rounds. Morgan is dead sure that the champion will fall out at least once during the battle.

When Brown beat Keen recently it was after ten weeks of illness, due to a broken hand. K. O. is rusty, Morgan declares, and didn't shine, but that fight did him over. He is sure that Wolgast will win, but he cannot be so sure. Wolgast is limited to six rounds. Morgan is dead sure that the champion will fall out at least once during the battle.
